Preamble

Due to several requests concerning possibilities for product customization of B&R's Industrial PCs and to improve information transparency, the according product room for B&R Automation PCs and Panel PCs has got a separate section for product customization.

Confluence space for Product customization of B&R industrial pcs

In the following sections, you can find a short summary.

Customized GPOS images

By choosing this option, we offer the customer the possibility to install an individual GPOS image (Windows, Linux) including the application during the assembly process.

The customer then gets pre-installed Automation PC or Panel PC that is ready to use.

Customized BIOS settings

With this option the customer is able to configure the individual BIOS settings for the respective application.
